Fortnum Private Wealth Ltd

Fortnum, as an Australian Financial Services Licensee, brings together many like-minded financial advisers who share a “client-first” approach. Our name comes from a combination of two words – fortress and numbers. This represents our duty to you, the client – our dedication to protecting your financial security and our strength in numbers.

Fortnum is owned by current and former:

- Principal Practices and Advisers (or their related entities);
- Fortnum staff; and
- Fortnum contractors.

How does Fortnum maintain adviser standards?

Each Fortnum Adviser is required to undertake continuous professional development. Fortnum hosts regular training programs on areas such as legislative changes to the taxation, social security, superannuation and investment environments. Our education and training philosophy is one of continually raising the bar.

Each Fortnum Adviser has direct access to technical, risk and investment research professionals who can provide additional analysis on strategy and products so that we can deliver quality advice to you. Risk management specialists monitor and regularly audit each Fortnum adviser to maintain high-quality advice standards.

Who is responsible for the advice I’m given?

Fortnum is responsible for any financial advice or services your Adviser provides under our Australian Financial Services Licence.

Financial services and products Fortnum can provide

Fortnum is licensed to provide financial product advice and deal with the following products:

- Deposit and payment products
- Debentures, stocks or bonds issued or proposed for issue by a government
- Derivatives

Fairway Financial Advice's advice process

Fairway Financial Advice has a comprehensive advice process in place designed to ensure that the advice provided is suited to your needs and financial circumstances.

In summary:

1. Getting to know you

It's all about you. When you meet with your Adviser, they will discuss your expectations, help you to identify your financial goals and provide you with details of the services that they can offer. During this meeting and/or at a follow-up meeting, they may also gather information about your financial situation, needs and objectives and your risk profile and ascertain what the scope of the advice to be provided will be. Your consent and agreement on the scope of the advice will be documented via a Letter of Engagement.

If you do not wish to provide the information they require to formulate their recommendations, your Adviser will advise you about the possible consequences of not having disclosed your full personal information and the impact on the recommendations given. You should consider these implications carefully.

2. Developing strategies and providing you with advice documents

Initial advice

Your Adviser will formulate a strategy to help achieve your needs and objectives and will put together any personal advice in a Statement of Advice (SoA). A SoA sets out the scope of the advice, your current personal and financial position, the basis for the advice and how it addresses your needs and objectives. It will also disclose the fees and charges payable by you and the remuneration and other benefits we may receive.

The SoA will also make reference to any potential conflicts of interest that you need to be aware of when deciding whether to rely on the advice. Your Adviser will explain any risks associated with implementing the recommendations. Please ask your Adviser to clarify any risks you do not understand.

Further advice

Where a further review is conducted or ad-hoc advice is requested from you and personal advice is provided, the advice may be provided via a new SoA or a Record of Advice (RoA) as applicable to the circumstances. Further advice may be in the form of a RoA where the further advice does not significantly differ from the original advice provided.

Where further advice is provided, and if you have not already been provided with a copy of the new advice document, then you may, for a period of seven years after the further advice was first provided to you, request a copy of your advice document. This can be done by contacting your Adviser in writing, by email or by telephone.

Product Disclosure Statement

If your Adviser recommends a product as part of your financial strategy, they will provide you with the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). The purpose of a Product Disclosure Statement is to assist you in making a decision about the particular financial product. It contains information about the product's key features, benefits, risks, and fees.

3. Gaining your consent to proceed

Your Adviser will discuss their recommendations with you, make any changes you require and gain your agreement to implement those recommendations. They will then implement those recommendations.

4. Keeping you on track

To ensure that the advice your Adviser provides you with continues to meet your financial situation, needs, and objectives, we offer an ongoing review service which provides regular reviews and written reports on the valuation and status of your investment portfolio, cash flow management and Insurance plans.

If you wish to take up this service, please contact your Adviser so they can provide more information and outline the appropriate fees.

If your Adviser recommends, and you enter into, an ongoing review service, for a period of more than 12 months:

- You will receive a Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) each year. It will outline the fees paid and the services you received in the preceding 12 months.
- You may also receive an Opt-in Notice every two years along with your FDS. This document will ask you to confirm that you would like to continue the ongoing service review with your Adviser.

Instructing your Adviser

At times, you may wish to make changes without receiving advice. In these cases, we can take your instructions by telephone, email or in person at Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd's office you are dealing with and arrange for the transaction to be completed, without providing personal advice.

If you wish to proceed without advice from us, we will ask you to confirm your instructions in writing. Once implemented, we will provide you with a Statement of Transaction (SoT), which confirms your instructions, informs you that no advice has been provided and discloses any fees and charges payable by you, as well as any benefits we may receive.

Charging options

The remuneration and other benefits listed below generally cover what Fortnum, your Adviser, Fairway Financial Advice and any related parties may receive as a result of the services provided to you. Specific amounts and benefits can often only be calculated once the recommendations are made to you.

There are various ways that you may pay Fortnum for the services we provide to you, including:

- Fee for service - where you pay a fee for the services that we provide;
- Commission (paid by product and service providers) in the form of initial (up-front) and/or ongoing (trail) commission; or
- A combination of commission and fee for service.

Each of these is discussed in further detail below.

Fee for service

Fee for service payments may be payable for:

- Preparation of advice and initial advice: We may charge fees for the preparation, presentation and/or implementation of our advice to you. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity involved in your situation and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you. We will discuss these fees with you and gain your agreement on the fees, in the form of a Letter of Engagement, before we provide you with advice. The fee will also be disclosed to you in your advice document.
- Ongoing adviser services: We may charge a fee for the services provided on an ongoing basis commencing from the implementation of the recommendations contained in the advice document. The amount and the services included will be determined in consultation with your Adviser.
- Ongoing review and advice services: We may charge a fee to provide ongoing portfolio reviews, including further advice suitable to your needs. This fee will be determined in consultation with your Adviser and documented in an Ongoing Service Agreement.

In all instances, your Adviser will discuss the calculation of the fees when you meet and agree on the services to be provided. Fees charged are generally payable after the services have been provided, however, ongoing adviser service fees are generally paid in advance. The agreed fees may be documented in a Letter of Engagement, set out in a Statement of Advice, or in a Record of Advice.

How are fees for services calculated and paid?

Fees charged for our services may be:

- a dollar amount;
- a percentage of the amount invested;
- an hourly rate; or
- a combination of some or all of the above, as agreed with you.

Payment of fees for services

We will discuss and agree on the method of payment with you before we provide you with our services. Generally, we will either invoice you directly, or deduct from your investments, or adopt a combination of these methods for the fees payable. Cash transactions will not be accepted.

The fee for service may be determined by any of the following:

- Initial Consultation may be payable, up to $360 (GST inclusive): This initial consultation meeting is obligation free and generally at no cost. In some cases, due to the complexity and nature of your circumstances an initial consultation fee may be charged.
- Financial Management Program, at a minimum of $1,980 (GST inclusive): this includes access to our Personal Wealth Platform (technology including MyProsperity App, set up of data feeds, user assistance and customisation), and annual review and tracking meetings.
- Specific Advice at a minimum of $1,100.00 (GST inclusive): this advice is usually specific to one area of your situation, i.e. investment portfolio; insurance claims, etc
- Strategic Advice at a minimum of $1,650.00 (GST inclusive): this advice is the most common style of advice and relates to an analysis of your whole situation and strategies for the future. This includes superannuation consolidation and projections;
- Structural Advice at a minimum of $2,750.00 (GST inclusive): this advice is provided in very complex situations and usually involves a number of different structures and strategies;
- You may also be offered an additional hourly rate of between $220 and $330 depending on the complexity of the advice given and your circumstances. This will be agreed between you and your adviser prior to proceeding.

Initial Adviser Services

- To implement the agreed strategies, we may charge an initial Adviser service fee. This fee is only payable if you accept our recommendations and you ask us to implement them for you. It is payable at the time of implementation and you can choose to pay by invoice or it may be deducted from your portfolio.

Ongoing Adviser Services

- We recommend that you review your financial situation at least every 12 months or whenever your personal or financial circumstances change.
- Our fee for assisting you at this time may be calculated as a percentage of your account balance or as a negotiated flat fee. You can arrange for the payment to be taken directly from your portfolio or paid on invoice under a fee for service arrangement.

Ongoing Review Services

- If we have no ongoing service arrangement with you, you need to ask us for advice or a review. We may then charge you a fee for any services we provide. The fee may be calculated as a percentage on your account balance or as a flat fee or charged by the hour for work completed. This fee will be agreed to between you and your chosen Adviser before work is commenced and disclosed in your applicable advice document.

Fees will be agreed based on your requirements and the complexity of your financial circumstances. All fees charged will be fully detailed in the Letter of Engagement or Statement of Advice you receive and will be agreed with you prior to you becoming liable for them. All fees are inclusive of GST.

If your Adviser receives a proportion of this remuneration directly attributable to the advice and/or service they have provided you, they will inform you of the amount at the time they provide you with advice.

Commissions on group life insurance products

Fortnum does not receive any initial or ongoing commission on group life insurance products held through superannuation including employer, corporate or industry superannuation plans. However, existing commission arrangements are grandfathered and will continue to be paid if the product was entered into before 1 July 2014. In instances where we advise that you retain such products, we will continue to receive any existing ongoing commissions that are payable.

In respect of all other life insurance products apart from group insurance plans held through superannuation, Fortnum may receive payments in the form of initial commissions and/or ongoing commissions from the product providers for any product you choose to use that is recommended by us. These commissions are included in the fees and/or premiums you pay for the product. You do not pay these fees to us directly. We may rebate some or all of this to you.

How are commissions (initial and ongoing) from a life insurance product and service provider calculated and deducted?

For all insurance policies applied for before 1 January 2018 and in force before 31 March 2018

Initial commission from a life insurance provider is typically up to 125% of the first year's premium that you pay. Ongoing commission can be up to 35% of the premium from year two onwards for the life of the policy.

The actual commission that will be received by Fortnum and Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd will be disclosed to you in your Statement of Advice, Statement of Transaction or Record of Advice.

Example

If you pay $1,000 p.a. in premium for a life insurance product recommended to you and the applicable initial commission is 125%, then Fortnum will receive initial commission of $1,250 (i.e. $1,000 x 125%). Fortnum may then pass on anywhere up to the full amount, $1,250 in this example, to the Principal Practice.

For all insurance policies either applied for after 1 January 2018 or applied for before 1 January 2018 and not in force before 31 March 2018

Initial commission from a life insurance provider is typically up to 88% (inclusive of GST) of the first year's premium that you pay. Ongoing commission can be up to 38.5% (inclusive of GST) of the premium from year two onwards for the life of the policy.

The actual commission that will be received by Fortnum, Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd, and your Adviser will be disclosed to you in your Statement of Advice, Statement of Transaction or Record of Advice.

Example

If you pay $1,000 p.a. in premium for a life insurance product recommended to you and the applicable initial commission is 80%, then Fortnum will receive initial commission of $800 (i.e. $1,000 x 80%). Fortnum may then pass on anywhere up to the full amount, $800 in this example, to the Principal Practice.

Commissions on investment products

Generally, Fortnum does not receive initial or ongoing commissions in respect of investment products. However, there are some products which continue to pay commissions where the product was entered into before 1 July 2014. In instances where we advise that you retain such products, we will continue to receive any existing ongoing commission that is payable.

All remuneration percentage rates paid from the product and service provider are dependent upon the specific products you hold and are inclusive of GST where applicable. Specific details of the commission paid from the product and service provider will be fully disclosed in your advice document.

Remuneration received by Fairway Financial Advice

All fees for services paid by you and/or commission paid by product and service providers are paid to Fortnum. Fortnum pays an amount to its Principal Practices, which depends on the gross revenue generated by the Principal Practice over the previous 12 months. Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd may receive up to 100% of the fees or commissions received. Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd may share part of this amount with your Adviser.

Your Statement of Advice, Statement of Transaction or Record of Advice will provide further details of amounts paid to Fortnum, Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd, and your Adviser.

Commissions may be paid by product and service providers to Fortnum, who, in turn, may pay a proportion of this to Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd. If your Adviser receives a proportion of this remuneration, they will inform you of the amount at the time they provide you with advice.

Adviser Remuneration

Glenn Dibley and Neil Macdonald are partners of Fairway Too Pty Ltd and have been appointed as Authorised Representatives of Fortnum.

Neil Macdonald is a director/shareholder of Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd and has been appointed as an Authorised Representative of Fortnum.

Courtney Cooper is an employee of Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd and has been appointed as an Authorised Representative of Fortnum.

Glenn, Neil and Courtney may be remunerated by one or more of the following methods. If any are relevant to the advice provided to you, further details will be set out in your advice document.

- Your Adviser may be paid a salary based on experience, capability and responsibilities within Fairway Financial Advice
- Your Adviser may be eligible to receive a bonus based on a combination of revenue and other non-financial measures that relate to compliance, staff training and the quality of service.
- Your Adviser may receive dividends and/or distributions as a shareholder of Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd and/or Fairway Too Pty Ltd.

Making and Receiving Referrals

We may provide you with a referral to other professionals. This may include, but is not limited to, accountants, mortgage brokers and legal practitioners. You may also have been referred to us by another professional.

We may make payments to people or organisations that refer clients to us. We pay up to 30% of the total remuneration received by us in conjunction with the referral. Full details of any referral payments will be provided to you in any Statement of Advice or Record of Advice.

Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd may refer you to AIA Australia in relation to Private Health Insurance under their MyOwn brand. If, after speaking with the MyOwn team, you take out Private Health Insurance with them, Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd will receive a referral fee of 20% of the first year's premium, plus GST. This is at no additional cost to you.

Other forms of remuneration or benefits

Fortnum, your Principal Practice and/or Adviser may be entitled to other benefits when providing services to you.

Fortnum, your Principal Practice and Adviser keep registers of small value benefits (i.e. $100 to $300 in value) which may be received by them from product and service providers. These benefits are permissible unless they are received frequently or when similar benefits received combine to exceed $300 per annum. If you would like a copy of the register, please ask your Adviser and it will be made available to you within seven days.

If your Adviser is an accountant who is subject to the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards, under APES 230, all benefits received, regardless of value, will be recorded on their register.

1. Payments from product and service providers

Fortnum receives payments from a number of product and service providers of up to 0.40% (inclusive of GST) per annum of amounts invested with the relevant providers before 01 July 2014. Of the amount received, Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd receives 60% and the balance is retained by Fortnum and is used in paying its expenses.

As at the date of this FSG, Fortnum receives payments from the following product and service providers: OnePath, Colonial, Navigator, Man Invest, IOOF and Life Risk Partnership.

Example

If the total revenue generated under the partnership agreements with a particular provider is $1000.00, the Principal Practice receives $600.00 (i.e. $1000.00 x 60%) and Fortnum retains the balance of $400.00.

Fortnum Advice Platform Trust (FAP Trust)

Fortnum Advice Platform Trust (FAP Trust) is an entity that sponsors a financial product called “Fortnum Advice Wrap” which is administered by BT Portfolio Services. All payments (sometimes referred to as rebates) received by Fortnum in respect of investments through the Fortnum Advice Wrap are held by the FAP Trust. Of this amount, the FAP Trust distributes payment to Principal Practices (or their related entities) and Fortnum staff holding units in the FAP Trust.

FAP Trust was established to facilitate rebates paid by BT to Fortnum in relation to client accounts established with BT (ie in BT Wrap and Fortnum Advice Wrap) on or before 30 June 2013. FAP Trust distributes these rebates in a manner as defined within the FAP Trust deed.

Your Adviser, Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd or a related entity holds Class A and / or Class C units in FAP Trust which gives them an interest in benefits distributed by FAP Trust. Class A unit holders receive a share of 60% of the distributions by FAP Trust in proportion to the gross revenue of FAP Trust referable to clients of Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd. Class C unit holders receive a share of 20% of distributions in proportion to the number of units held.

Example

If $100,000 revenue is generated from investing with Fortnum Advice Wrap, the Trust will distribute 60% to its Principal Practices who hold Class A units in the trust (i.e. $$100,000 \times 60\% = $60,000$). A further 20% is distributed to participating staff who hold Class B units in the trust (i.e. $$100,000 \times 20\% = $20,000$). The remaining 20% is distributed to the holders of Class C units which are held by both Principal Practices and participating staff (i.e. $$100,000 \times 20\% = $20,000$).

2. Licensee Administration Fee

If your Adviser recommends that you utilise a platform issued by BT (including BT Wrap and BT Panorama), Colonial First State, HUB24 or Netwealth, and you implement their recommendation, you may pay a Licensee Administration Fee of up to 0.08% per annum of your account balance up to a maximum of $800 per annum to Fortnum. For example, if you invest $200,000 in a Netwealth Account, your Licensee Administration Fee will be 0.06%pa of your account balance, or $120, in the first year.

This fee is retained by Fortnum and used to assist with the following costs:

- Obtaining Professional Indemnity insurance (PI Insurance) for Authorised Representatives;
- Negotiations which Fortnum undertakes with the above platform providers for reduced administration fees;
- Negotiations which Fortnum undertakes with investment managers for rebates on their fees (Investment Management fees/Indirect Cost Ratios/Management Expense Ratios) for clients.

This Licensee Administration Fee reduces the fee that Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd pays to Fortnum. For example, if your adviser recommends you invest in one of the aforementioned platforms on or after 1 May 2018, the total amount to be invested is recommended to be $500,000 in the first year, the Licensee Fee would be $300. This amount would be applied in full to reduce the fees that Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd owes Fortnum, up to a maximum of 40% of those fees.

Details of whether this applies, and the Licensee Administration Fee applicable, will be outlined in your Statement of Advice.

3. Payments from the Aviate Group

Fortnum receives a referral payment of 1% of the purchase price of any property purchased as a result of a referral to the Aviate Group. Fortnum deducts its fee as detailed in the paragraph above headed 'Remuneration received by Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd' and pays the balance to Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd.

Professional Indemnity Insurance

Fortnum is covered by Professional Indemnity insurance satisfying the requirements under section 912B of the Corporations Act (2001) relating to insurance obligations. Our insurance arrangements cover claims made against us as the Licensee and for the conduct of any Fortnum adviser (whilst acting as an Authorised Representative of our Australian Financial Services Licence).

Your privacy

We collect and keep a record of your personal information, including sensitive information (e.g. information about your health), in order to provide you services including financial advice.

We may also use the information we have collected in order to comply with any legislative or regulatory obligations we have and to help us run our business.

Fortnum is committed to the confidentiality and security of your personal information.

It will be necessary for us to collect, use and disclose your personal information. If you do not consent to this, or we are unable to collect all the necessary personal information, we will not be able to provide you with the relevant financial planning and advice services.

In most cases, we collect personal information directly from you. In other cases, however, we may collect your personal information from third parties. The third parties we may collect from include, but are not limited to: your accountant, your lawyer or solicitor, other financial services institutions, insurance providers and any other third parties where you have provided consent.

In order to manage and administer our financial planning services, it may be necessary for us to disclose your personal information to third parties. The parties to whom we may disclose your personal information include, but are not limited to:

financial institutions for the provision of financial products, such as investments, superannuation, and life insurance; auditors; third parties providing mailing services, administration support, maintenance of our information technology systems, printing of our standard documents and correspondence, research services; any government or regulatory body for whom we have a legal obligation to provide this information to; referral partners.

It is possible that an organisation listed above may disclose your personal information to overseas recipients, but it is not possible for us to provide any further details of that in this document.

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside of Australia, to enable them to undertake specified services on behalf of Fortnum, your Adviser or Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd.

Details of this can be found in the Fortnum Privacy Policy, which includes details of how you may access, and seek correction of, your personal information which we hold. It also includes details of how you may complain if you believe that we have breached the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act and how we deal with such complaints.

You may obtain a copy of the Fortnum Privacy Policy by telephoning us on (02) 9904 2792 or by visiting our website at www.fortnum.com.au.

You can authorise another person to act on your behalf, to receive information and/or undertake transactions. Both requesting this to occur, and removing this authorisation, are required to be notified in writing.

Where your Adviser becomes a representative of, or sells their business to, another Australian Financial Services Licensee, Fortnum may also use and disclose the information collected about you to enable your Adviser or the new business owner to continue to provide you with financial products and services.

We collect your personal information as permitted by, and in accordance with, the Privacy Act. Other legislation may also apply, such as the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act.

Conflicts you should be aware of

Relationships and associations

The extensive list of products and services approved by Fortnum includes products and services provided by entities with whom Fortnum director, employee, Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd and/or your Adviser have a relationship or association, either directly or via a related entity.

We believe that your interests should be placed first and that products and services should only be recommended if it is in your best interests. However, it is important that you know of, and are comfortable with, those relationships and associations and any benefits that arise.

Shareholding in Fortnum Private Wealth Ltd

Your Adviser or your Adviser's Principal Practice either personally, directly or through an associated entity, may be a shareholder in Fortnum Private Wealth Ltd (Fortnum).

Shareholding in Fortnum Financial Group Limited

Your Adviser or Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd, either personally, or through an associated entity, may be a shareholder in the holding company named Fortnum Financial Group Limited (FFG). FFG has a majority shareholding in a number of entities.

FFG Shareholding in Innova Asset Management

FFG has a major shareholding in Innova Asset Management Pty Ltd, the asset manager for many of the investment options available through the e-Cclipse Super and Super Pension Plan.

Innova Asset Management Pty Ltd is also the asset manager for some Model Portfolios available through other administration platforms. If appropriate for your needs, your Adviser may recommend model portfolios available through an administration platform.

If so, Fortnum, FFG and consequently your Adviser or Fairway Financial Advice Pty Ltd (as shareholders in Fortnum and/or FFG) may benefit from these recommendations.

In addition, some directors of Fortnum are directors/officers and/or shareholders, either directly or indirectly, in companies that provide financial products or services that your Adviser may recommend to you, if appropriate.

Accordingly, these directors may be seen to influence or benefit from any recommendation by a Fortnum Adviser for you to utilise any of these products or services.

This includes, but is not limited to, Fortnum, FFG and Innova Asset Management Pty Ltd.
